Solo One

Solo Two

Solo One and Solo Two are manufactured to accept optional returns as shown on Solo Two

Solo One features floating top across the whole frontal area whereas the Solo Two has higher panels on one corner to help conceal the computer/cabling. When ordering Solo Two it is important you nominate which side you want the extended height.

All reception desks pictured on this page are presented as standard. The front coloured feature panel may be placed in different positions. For example, feature panels can be placed on the corner, left or right in Solo One and Solo Two.

Horizontal dual stripes, as seen on front of Tempo reception desk, can also be used on Solo One or Radial Reception desks at no extra cost.
